

Doctor of Ministry

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Saint Paul School of Theology's Doctor of Ministry degree program is committed to the formation of people for innovative, creative ministry. Our NEW track - *Spirituality, Innovation, and Adaptive Leadership - focuses on developing practices of contemplative spirituality that lead to being change-agents in the church and society. Grounded in listening to God, students will engage innovative practices of ministry and how to manage and sustain them through adaptive principles, emotional intelligence, and intercultural competence. Students will conceptualize renewed paths for faithful leadership in a suffering and conflicted world.

PROGRAM FEATURES

- Affiliate faculty Resurrection UMC and Oklahoma City University
- Theological courses covering theology, history and worship.
- Focus courses on incarnational leadership, sustaining spirituality for leaders, and leading innovation.

Lead Faculty

Elaine Robinson, PhD
Professor of Methodist Studies and Christian Theology

Joshua Bartholomew, PhD
Assistant Professor of Ethics, Church and Society

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

Complete the online application including:

1. Official academic transcripts
2. Letters of Recommendation
3. Personal Statement
4. A theological writing sample
5. A $0 non-refundable application fee

Application deadline June 1, 2024

Discover More!

Contact Admissions
913-253-5084
admiss@spst.edu